And in Crimson Pistil, the two get in a glorious tangle of berry-like tartness, sunset technicolor and sticky tropical notes. 6.2% ABV – 52 IBU's.
- 5. Sierra Nevada Hazy Little Thing IPA - (Chico, California) A hop-heavy, unfiltered, hazy little thing called IPA. Brewers have the privilege to sample their beers straight from the tanks in all their raw glory. Some beers need a little polishing to get ready to go out into the world, while others – the hop heavy, rowdy, crowd-pleasers should be left alone. Thus we have this Hazy Little Thing, straight from the tanks of Sierra Nevada to you. 6.7% ABV - 40 IBU's.
- 6. Lord Hobo Brewing Co. Angelica New England Wheat – (Woburn, Massachusetts) A New England take on a classic beer style, Angelica offers the refreshing drinkability of a wheat beer combined with fruit juice characteristics and elegant haze. 5.5% ABV – 20 IBU's.

- 13. Miller Lite – (Milwaukee, Wisconsin) Miller Lite is the great tasting, less filling beer that created the American light beer category in 1975. Triple-hops brewed for great pilsner taste! 4.2% ABV – 10 IBU's.

Coming up next on Draft:

- Lagunitas Super Cluster Double IPA – (Petaluma, California) This out-of-this-world ale is a galactic blast from the glass, a Citrus supernova in the sky, jettisoning lupulin lushness through the cosmos and cross the universe of your palate. 8.0% ABV – 60 IBU's.
- Molly Pitcher Brewing Co. Redcoat ESB – (Carlisle, Pennsylvania) Don't let the term ESB fool you, the bitter in its name is a bit misleading. Far less bitter than an IPA, its bitterness is in the same neighborhood as a Pale Ale. Redcoat Extra Special Bitter has a malt bill using Melanoidin malt and a tiny amount of Chocolate malt to create a reddish hue and a unique and delicious malty finish. 5.5% ABV – 45 IBU's.
